

PROBE FATE OF 22 GIRLS LOST

Finding of Ruth Cruger's Body Starts Inquiry; Cocchi Indicted.

New York, June 15.—As a result of the murder of Ruth Cruger, 15 year old high school graduate, whose body was found buried in a cellar Saturday, police today began an investigation of charges that 22 missing girls in this city might have suffered similar fate.

Evidence against Alfredo Cocchi, proprietor of the bicycle repair shop in the basement of which the body was found, was presented to the grand jury today. Word was received from Washington that the Italian government had been requested to hold Cocchi, who fled to Italy soon after Ruth Cruger disappeared, four months ago.

As a war ally of this country, Italy is expected to waive its policy of refusing to surrender a man charged with murder, except on the stipulation that the death penalty would not be imposed.

Later an indictment charging murder in the first degree was returned against Cocchi.

PERSHING PLANS RECEIVING ARMY

Has Ended Social Diversions and Is Hard at Work on War Program.

Paris, France, June 15.—Maj. Gen. J. J. Pershing was hard at work at his office today. He has completed the round of social functions and has a busy week ahead in dealing with the important questions regarding the arrival of the American troops.

Americans in French Barracks.
The American enlisted men who came to France with Gen. Pershing are having experiences with foreign habits, languages and ration which indicate what the main body of American troops will find when it arrives. The Americans are quartered at the Poperie barracks, a huge quadrilateral on Place St. Augustin, one of the central locations of Paris. There are housed troops from all of the allied nations, including Russians, Serbians, Belgians, Romanians, Canadians, Australians and New Zealanders with 60 American troops, engineers and automobile drivers among the last arrivals.

Have French Rations.
The vast central court presents a strange sight in the mingling of uniforms and flags of the various nations.

Each contingent has its own drills and its own living and eating quarters, but when the men are off duty, the court is crowded with the soldiers, speaking many languages and attempting to make themselves understood with signs. The American troops are on French military rations, which they like better than American or British rations, for in addition to an abundance of well cooked food they embrace the regular French allowance of wine, which, however, may be discontinued when the American rations are established.

Breakfast, Bread and Coffee.
The chief novelty for the American is the continental breakfast, restricted to bread and coffee. Luncheon and dinner are served in courses, with plenty of meat and vegetables. The morning meal is served at 8 o'clock in the morning, breakfast at 8, and then round of duties, concluding with taps at 10 p. m.

PROVOST MARSHAL PROBES 'BOOTLEGGING' TO SOLDIERS

Several soldiers were taken to the office of the provost marshal Saturday night after 11 o'clock, charged with being in the city after that hour, instead of at their camps near Fort Bliss. Many of them were also charged with disorderly conduct and drunkenness. All were questioned by Capt. E. R. Harris, provost marshal, in an effort to find the men who are "bootlegging" liquor to soldiers. A sergeant and four privates of the 10th Cavalry were arrested in Taft by deputy sheriff Charles M. Brooks, charged with being drunk, and were later sent to El Paso.

BRITISH IN UNITED STATES TO BE DRAFTED FOR WAR

New York, June 15.—Under the leadership of Brig. Gen. W. A. White, the British army will be drafted into the United States to be conscripted for military service, it is announced. White went to Washington Saturday to confer with the war department on the details. Gen. White is in charge of recruiting for the British army in the United States and has already enlisted more than one battalion.

DISCHARGED GUARDSMEN WITHIN AGE MUST REGISTER

Austin, Tex., June 15.—The adjutant general's department today received the following ruling from provost marshal Gen. Crowder, of the war department:

"National guardsmen who were between the ages of 21 and 30 on June 5, and who have since that date been discharged, must register. Much difficulty will be saved if arrangements are made to have these men registered upon their discharge."

OVERLAND NEW ARMY DEADLINE

Gen. Bell Orders Soldiers Mustn't Pass That Street Except on Duty.

Orders were issued Monday by Brig. Gen. George Bell, Jr., prohibiting all soldiers except those on military duty from visiting the Mexican section of El Paso. Overland street has been fixed as the "dead line" and no soldiers will be permitted south of this street.

The order was issued after a conference between military authorities and city and police officials. It has been called to the attention of both that "bootlegging" on a wholesale scale has been carried on in this section of the city. The order prohibiting soldiers from visiting the Mexican part of the city is expected to curb this practice.

NO TEXAS GUARD BATTALION TO BE RAISED IN EL PASO

Press notices issued by the Texas national guard recruiting offices in Houston do not bear out the statement that El Paso is to have a battalion in the guard. The bulletin show but one new company organizing here, that which J. F. Colley has been authorized to recruit. With company K, Fourth Texas Infantry, already in the service, this would make but two El Paso companies besides the hospital company which Dr. W. R. Jamieson is forming.

Following are the men in west Texas who are recruiting the units: many of infantry; Homer T. Merrill, Lubbock, a company of infantry; William M. Murphy, Quanah, a company of infantry.

GREATER PORT BLISS DELAYED

War Department Decides Not to Take the Land Offered; No Cantonment.

El Paso has been refused a cantonment by secretary of war Newton D. Baker, and the war department has also announced that it will not at this time purchase land near Fort Bliss to enlarge it to a division post. This information was received by John M. Wyatt, president of the chamber of commerce, Sunday in a telegram from J. A. Happer, in Washington. Mr. Happer stated in his wire that Mr. Baker had declined to give El Paso a cantonment, owing to sand and wind storms, and that the land purchase was postponed indefinitely.

Mr. Happer, who was a member of the committee that went to Washington recently representing the chamber of commerce and city, conferred with Mr. Baker regarding the cantonment, after other committee members had gone. He also discussed with the secretary of war the proposition to sell to the government 14,000 acres of land near Fort Bliss. Dr. B. M. Worsham, several weeks ago was at Washington to confer with government officials on the sale of the land and at that time it was believed the government would purchase the acres and enlarge Fort Bliss. The 14,000 acres has its south boundary near Tobin.

From the telegram sent by Mr. Happer El Paso will not receive any additional troops soon. Deming will be the principal training camp for militia for this section of the south-east.

Decision Appears Final.

In speaking of the action of the government, Mr. Wyatt said Monday: "The decision of the war department not to give El Paso a cantonment appears to be final. The unusual wind and dust storms of the past several weeks was the main cause of this city losing the camp. But there were contributing causes also, such as our failure to meet other towns in the donation of lands to the government. Then too, in some cases merchants over-charged the soldiers. Failure to provide wholesome, clean places of recreation for the soldiers in the city was undoubtedly another factor."

Let's Get Busy Otherwise, Says.
"While we have lost we want to congratulate our little sister city of Deming. El Paso was not built by the presence of soldiers, but only enjoyed an added prosperity for a few months by their presence. Failure to secure one of the cantonments can have no bad effect on the continuing growth and prosperity of El Paso. Other large enterprises and industries are contemplated, any one of which will take the place of the training camps. So let's forget the loss and get down to the business of building our city on a permanent basis, without the aid of so transient a thing as a soldiers' training camp. Time will tell whether El Paso ought to have had a camp when commanders are made as to the health of the 60,000 men here last summer as compared with that of the health of the men in lower altitudes, such as Houston, Waco, and other places."

A. P. Coles, chairman of the military affairs committee of the chamber of commerce returned from Washington Sunday night. B. Crockett, another committee member, returned Saturday. James G. McNary and U. S. Stewart went to New York on private business after the committee met the officials of the war department.

Says El Paso Must Wake Up.
"El Paso people must wake up and work for these things," said A. P. Coles, discussing the loss of the cantonment. "Except for a few businessmen and the chamber of commerce, El Pasoans took no interest in the military training camp until the very last minute. If we are to get things for El Paso, we must keep working continually."

We were treated very nicely by the secretary of war. The action of mayor Charles Davis in closing the restricted district and in cleaning up the town made a very favorable impression with Mr. Baker. Even though we will not get the training camp, El Paso will continue to have large bodies of troops. The war department feels the necessity of keeping troops here."

FIRST TEXAS CAVALRY IS NOW ABOUT COMPLETE

Houston, Texas, June 15.—Assignment of officers of the First Texas cavalry was announced at the headquarters of Brig. Gen. John A. Hulen. The cavalry is complete with the exception of two troops. Troop I at Waco and troop K at San Antonio. Both these are nearly recruited to full strength; it is expected they will be within a short time. The cavalry will be commanded by Col. A. R. Shulz, of Orange, now a major in the Third Texas Infantry. Tom D. Collins, of Galveston, is lieutenant colonel. The cavalry will have a strength of 1520 men and 59 officers.

Squadron commanders are: First squadron, Maj. John B. Golding, Amarillo; adjutant, First Lieut. John S. Pape, San Antonio. Second squadron, Maj. Felix D. Robertson, Dallas; adjutant, First Lieut. J. E. Nicholson, Houston. Third squadron, Maj. L. H. Younger, Austin; adjutant, First Lieut. Walter F. Woodul, Laredo.

Headquarters and regimental adjutant, Capt. Joe M. Daniels, Kerna. Troop E is from Amarillo, commanded by Capt. H. M. Crodington, First Lieut. Grover C. Malone and Second Lieut. Otto G. Roquemore. This is the only west Texas or Panhandle outfit in the regiment. An Amarillo man, Chas. A. Grudington, is first lieutenant in troop L, forming at Waco.

EL PASO DENTISTS TO SPEAK AT ALBUQUERQUE CONVENTION

Dr. Henri Letord and Dr. W. F. Blair, of El Paso, are on the program as speakers at the tenth annual session of the New Mexico Dental society, to open in Albuquerque, June 20, in the Commercial club building. The session will last three days.
